

Dr. Mario Alberto Valadez

Specialties

Internal Medicine, Rheumatology

Dr. Mario Alberto Valadez has been treating patients with Arthritic hand, knee and foot pain in the Matamoros area for the last 18 years. Dr. Valadez attended medical school at the Universidad Autonoma de Nuevo Leon in Monterrey and he completed his residency in internal medicine as well as his sub-specialization in Rheumatology at the Hospital Universitario in Monterrey. Dr. Valadez is board certified in both Internal Medicine and Rheumatology/Clinical Immunology. He has seventeen years of institutional experience as chief of Internal Medicine and attending Rheumatologist at the ISSTE. Dr. Valadez is an active member of the Colegio Mexicano de Reumatologia and regularly attends International Medical Conferences such as the American College of Rheumatologist's annual scientific meetings. Dr. Valadez participated in Phase IV clinical trials for Humira, a treatment for arthritis manufactured by Abbott Laboratories and he is up-to-date on the most innovative diagnostic exams and bio-tech products available for the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, osteoarthritis, fibromyalgia and osteoporosis.